

An example

We asked Richard to show you an example, after all he has been on radio quite a few times. We gave him the list and he didn't know a single song. He then spotted that we have said this project is for people aged between 8-13 and said he should do it for the years when he was 13. We checked and people did make records in those days, so here it is; best No 1s from 1964/65 (when he was actually 15/16). He has not written out his adverts as you will have to do because he didn't want to give you any ideas. Old and mean,

The plan for your show should look roughly like this, with the actual text of your adverts written in the event column:-

TIME	EVENT	RUNNING TIME
½ minute	General introduction and intro to first track	½ minute
2¼ minutes	Help by The Beatles	2¾ minutes
¼ minute	Intro to second track	3 minutes
3¾ minutes	That Lovin' Feelin - The Righteous Brothers	6¾ minutes
½ minute	Intro to third track	7¼ minutes
3 minutes	Have I The Right by The Honeycombs	10¼ minutes
½ minute	First Advert	10¾ minutes
¼ minute	Intro to fourth track	11 minutes
2¼ minutes	Needles And Pins by The Searchers	13¼ minutes
¼ minute	Intro to fifth track	13½ minutes
2½ minutes	Baby Love by The Supremes	16 minutes
¼ minute	Intro to sixth track	16¼ minutes
3¼ minutes	Make It Easy On Yourself - Walker Brothers	19½ minutes
½ minute	Intro to seventh track	20 minutes
2½ minutes	Mr Tambourine Man by The Byrds	22½ minutes
½ minute	Second Advert	23 minutes
¼ minute	Intro to eighth track	23¼ minutes
2¾ minutes	It's Over by Roy Orbison	26 minutes
½ minute	Intro to final track	26½ minutes
3 minutes	The Carnival Is Over by The Seekers	29½ minutes
½ minute	Closing chat	30 minutes